DETENTION ORDER

18 U.S.C. § 3142(i)

1           3.       Defendant has a substantial number of failures to appear on his criminal record.
2 In addition, he has a substantial number of violations of court orders, reflecting an
3 unwillingness or inability to comply with supervision.

4           4.       Defendant has been charged with several domestic violence charges and
5 violations of no-contact orders.

6           5.       Defendant poses a substantial economic danger to the community in light of his
7 repeated record of financial crimes.

8           6.       Defendant is associated with two social security numbers.

9           7.       Although the weight of the evidence is the least important factor in reaching
10 detention decisions, it cannot be ignored. The weight is strong as the AUSA has proffered
11 Defendant was captured on videotape.

12          8.       There appear to be no conditions or combination of conditions other than 13 detention that will reasonably assure the appearance of defendant as required or ensure the 14 safety of the community.

15           IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

16          (1)       Defendant shall be detained and shall be committed to the custody of the 17 Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent
18 practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody
19 pending appeal;

20          (2)       Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with 21 counsel;

22          (3)       On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the
23 government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant
24 is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the 25 purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and 26

1           (4)     The Clerk shall direct copies of this Order to counsel for the United States, to
2                     counsel for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United States
3                     Pretrial Services Officer.

4           DATED this 8th day of March, 2010.
